

Philemon: The Art of Persuasion

Did anything stick out to you from the book of Philemon or the Sunday message?

What is the difference between “praising what you want to see practiced and flattery or manipulation?”

Read Acts 15:36-40

Is there a Barnabas or a Mark in your life? How can you take steps toward reconciliation? Or, how have you reconciled with a Paul or a Barnabas in the past?

Why is embodying what we believe so important?

How does a willingness to forgive or reconcile make our message for the world more persuasive?